DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-18, in the reply filed on 01/18/2007 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Carroll et al. (U.S. 6,482,182).

Carroll et al discloses substantially as claimed in figures 1-4, a shell (20) capable of being inserted in a burr hole of skull; a collet (426) capable of interlocking with the shell (20) and securing a medical device (5); a clamp (312) capable of interlocking with the shell (20) and compressing the collet (426); and a cover (70) capable of covering the shell, collet and clamp; wherein the shell (20) comprises a flange (at 60) and slot (as shown in figure 1); wherein the collet (426) including a conical shape (between 420 and 304); and furthermore, wherein the shell (20) having a locking base adapted to interlock with the locking base of the collet (426).
